

The left end monomer  $R_1$  is condensed to the right end monomer  $R_2$  to yield a peptidic bond. A water molecule is lost during the process.

Figure 1: Peptidic Bond Formation by Condensation